

One Cent a Word

Advertising in this column one cent a word, each insertion. Copy may be changed every week. Cash in advance required. No advertisement taken which is less than 12 words two lines. Special terms to advertisers using from 250 to 1,000 lines within 12 consecutive months.

WANTED

SALVAGE wanted for northern Vermont to handle an extra good proposition, only one of selling ability need apply. No house to house canvassing proposition, but of promising future. J. G. Sheridan, Willamstown, Vt. 262.6.11.

FOR SALE

LOAD of light and heavy wagons to clean out at cost, also agent for the Drew Motor car and heavy fixtures, also engines, light and heavy harness. C. N. Pyrah, Underhill, Vt. 257.6.11.

FOR SALE—Moose 4 to 5 months and a few years old, from my B. of M. Jerome D. C. R. R. Greenboro, Vt. 25.11.11.

TWO MARIAGNY WARDROBES and a mahogany bedstead for sale, also some books. E. M. Smith, Stowe, Vt. 11.11.11.

FOR RENT

A SEVEN ROOM TENEMENT with garden, fruit, etc., on the main street at Westminster Station, Vt. A good location for a commercial traveler. Apply to W. W. Farr, 83 North Union street, Burlington, Vt. 11.11.11.

FARMS FOR SALE

GOOD FARM for sale. Address Box 11, Underhill Center, Vt. 25.11.11.

FARM for sale, about 100 acres, 75 m. lumber, lot growing pine, good sugar orchard, good buildings, R. D., near school, fine orchard. Price $2,000, part cash. Box 153, Willard, Vt. 11.11.11.

HORSES AND LIVESTOCK

PIGS for sale. We expect 200 to 300 right away and we will make a price on them so that they will sell as a few more, bred to farrow soon, and a few male foot sow pigs for breeders at reasonable prices. L. W. Dow, Waterbury Center, Vt. 23.11.11.

NOTICE

THE EXCHANGE for a farm ten (10) small tenements free from mortgages, all completed and paying well, located in thriving village, about 9 miles from Burlington, S. W. G. care Free Press, 25.11.11.

RENT FOR FIVE LIST of farms, etc. N. J. Potvin, Real Estate Dealer, South Burlington, Vt. 25.11.11.

Beautiful Handmade Rugs

from Your Old Carpets
Old Ingrain, Brussels, Tapestry, Velvet and Rug Carpets and Rugs made from remnants. We furnish all warp. NATIONAL RUG WORKS. T. A. THIERRE, Proprietor, 3 Allen Street, Burlington, 15.11.11.

STANDARD STEAM LAUNDRY

Office 145 Cherry street. H. W. Bullock, proprietor. Fine shirt, collar and cuff work. Phone 28-11. Call and driver will call.

FRANK S. LANOU & SON,

Practical Plumbers and Steam Fitters, 90 St. Paul Street.
Best North Burlington Savings Bank.

Burlington Veterinary Hospital,

73 Pine St., Burlington, Vt.
DR. J. A. RISE, Veterinary Surgeon and Physician.
Graduate Grand Rapids Veterinary College, 1906. Latest equipment for all animal surgery, including castration and cauterization tables. Charge 35c.

FARM AT AUCTION

Fire having destroyed our main barn we offer our farm situated on and near miles south of Randolph, Vt., for sale at public auction November 10, 1914, at 1:00 p. m. Said farm contains about 80 acres, good pasture, well watered, will carry 20 cows and 200 head of stock and will yield 2,000 cords of wood and 3,000 cords of hay. Good buildings, including barn, 18x24 ft. spring water piped to buildings. There will be included with farm sugar house equipped with grum and evaporator and 100 lbs. also telephone line, quantity of apple trees and small fruit. Good time now to buy, it offers before snow comes. Terms in line of sale.
ALEXANDER TATRO AND SON, 15.11.11.

Sowing the Ploughed Field

It is an easy job to sow the ploughed field and wait for the harvest.
When the National Manufacturing Co. advertises his product in this newspaper he is ploughing the field for every retailer in this city who carries his goods.
He is creating tangible customers.
It is up to the retailer to sow and reap by backing up the advertiser's goods.
Sow the Goods.
Get ready to cash in on the manufacturer in newspaper advertising. Do it now.

CARD INDEX FILES

The Free Press Stationery Store

Happenings in Vermont

Local Items of Interest from All Parts of the Green Mountain State.

THE NEWS BY COUNTIES

From the Island in the Lake to the Passumpsic, Along Otter Creek and Shores of White River.

ADDISON COUNTY

MIDDLEBURY.

One of the pleasant social events of the season in Middlebury was the wedding of Miss Josephine Harriet, daughter of Mrs. Jane Kelly of Middlebury, and Lucius Melvin Avery, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Avery of Fairbush, which took place at the Kelly home Wednesday October 28. In the presence of relatives and immediate friends, at the untold hour the wedding party entered the parlor to the strains of the "Lohengrin" wedding march, played by Miss Doris Kingland, a cousin of the bride. The bride was attended by Miss Bernice Avery, sister of the groom, as maid of honor, and four little ribbon bearers, Ralph Wilcox, Dorothy Hobbes, Donald Downs and Ruth Sherburne. Little Cecile Wilcox was flower girl. The best man was Ruper Field of Milton. The Rev. J. E. Roper, pastor of the Episcopal Church of Middlebury, was the officiating clergyman. Mr. and Mrs. Avery left on the 9.30 morning train for Boston and vicinity. Mr. M. Stearns and family have moved from the Muzzy farm to the Isaac Lavonche, Sr. house, which they recently purchased. Mrs. Damon Champlain and Mrs. Richard Beddo have returned from a week's visit in Montreal. The Middlebury Grange will hold a special meeting Friday evening at which time the third and fourth degrees will be conferred on a large class. Mrs. John Avery, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Abbey of Washington street for a week, has returned to Montpelier. Constable C. J. Seely, who has been confined for some weeks with rheumatism, is slowly recovering. Mrs. Vassan has returned from Pittsboro, Mass., where he has been for ten days to visit his brother, Philip Vassan. Mrs. George T. Kidder, Sr., who has been at the Mary Fletcher hospital at Burlington for a few weeks, has returned home greatly improved. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hard, who have been at the Addison for the past week, have returned to Manchester. Fish and Game Warden William Grover of New Haven arrested Harvey Gault of Bristol on a charge of trapping in closed season on the morning of C. W. Norton. He took him before C. W. Norton. He pleaded guilty and was fined $5 and costs, amounting to $14.50, which he paid. Mrs. Joseph Jones, who made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Nelson Vassan, for some time and who has been ill for the past month, died early Monday morning at the age of 63 years. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Nelson Vassan, Mrs. Frank Marselles and Mrs. Frank Trudo, all of this village. Sunday was a busy day at the Congregational Church and six new members were taken in. Four were received on confession of faith, Marion Elizabeth Carr, Phina Attwood, Cecil John Quincy Dickinson and Calvin Harold Stearns, all of Middlebury, and two associate members, Gladys of Roxbury, N. Y. Mrs. Emily J. Rogers went Monday to Rutland and will later go to Pittsford and Orwell. Miss Margaret Mills and Miss Gladys Frost have returned from Rutland. Mrs. George H. Brooks of Boston, who has been for a few days at the Middlebury Grange will hold a special meeting Friday evening at which time the third degree will be conferred on a large class. At the close of the degree work a banquet will be served. Miss Kathryn Vassan entertained 15 of her young friends at a Halloween party Saturday evening. The Rev. John Chapman, a missionary to Alaska, who is in town to visit his family, gave a sketch of his work in that field at a union meeting at the Methodist Church Sunday. Professor Raymond McFarland has returned from Montpelier, where on Saturday night he lectured on the subject of "The Future of the World." His address at a progressive meeting at the Methodist Church Sunday evening was accompanied by Miss Marion Crosby and Miss Beate Bradenburgh of Middlebury, who were enjoying a ride Saturday night when, about two miles east of the village, in making a turn for the return trip the buggy was overturned and all were thrown out. The carriage was badly smashed and the horses ran to Weybridge. Young Warner and Miss Bradenburgh escaped with slight bruises, but Miss Crosby was thrown under the overturned buggy and her right leg was broken just above the knee. The Middlebury barbers who have been in the custom of closing every Thursday afternoon evening for three years have agreed to dispense with that arrangement and the shop will hereafter be open on Thursday afternoon, but not at night.

VERGENNES.

F. C. Everett, an aged and respected citizen of this city died Thursday morning at his home on Main street from an illness of about a year. He was 88 years old. Mr. Everett was born in Addison and came from a family of long standing in this city. For many years he was proprietor of the American House on Main street, now known as the Norton House. At one time he was a member of the governor's staff with the rank of colonel. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. E. E. Peabody of Watford, and one son, Mr. H. H. Everett of Pasadena, Cal. The funeral was held Saturday afternoon. Frank, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Rock of this city, and Miss Mattie M. Merchant of Burlington were married Oct. 26 at St. Anthony's church. Burlington in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The Rev. W. A. Hammond performing the ceremony. The bridegroom is a native of Burlington. The bride, Fredrick May of this city acting as best man. The bride wore a dress of Alice blue and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaid was dressed in light blue chiffon with a lace cap of blue and carried white carnations. A reception was given at the home of the bride, 21 Howard street, Burlington. The house was decorated with autumn foliage and refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Rock have gone on a three weeks' wedding trip to Boston and Springfield, Mass. On their return they will make their home in Burlington.

Principal W. H. Carter of the Proctor high school was a weekend visitor at his mother's, Mrs. Joseph Carter. Mrs. Kate Allen is confined to the bed. Mrs. Emma Jackson has gone to New Haven to visit her daughter, Mrs. Charles Dana. Beginning Sunday, November 15, the Bixby Memorial Free library will be open each Sunday from 2:30 to 5 p. m. during the week of November 15 to 21. The library is in charge of Miss Mary B. Kendall, who has returned to Shorham after a visit to her mother, Mrs. Kate Allen, and her sister, Mrs. Dewitt H. Parker. Mrs. Edward Smith, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. A. H. Godeff, has returned to Randolph. Saturday evening the market prices brought 25 cents and better for.

Mrs. Stanley Rider and sisters, the Misses Luna and Elizabeth Field, have taken rooms at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Devoe. Mrs. G. E. Stone and Mrs. George W. Stone spent Sunday with Mrs. G. E. Stone's daughter, Miss Mary Stone, at Middlebury. Mrs. Henry T. Stone has returned from a tour of the state. The Rev. John Chapman, a missionary to Alaska, who is in town to visit his family, gave a sketch of his work in that field at a union meeting at the Methodist Church Sunday. Professor Raymond McFarland has returned from Montpelier, where on Saturday night he lectured on the subject of "The Future of the World." His address at a progressive meeting at the Methodist Church Sunday evening was accompanied by Miss Marion Crosby and Miss Beate Bradenburgh of Middlebury, who were enjoying a ride Saturday night when, about two miles east of the village, in making a turn for the return trip the buggy was overturned and all were thrown out. The carriage was badly smashed and the horses ran to Weybridge. Young Warner and Miss Bradenburgh escaped with slight bruises, but Miss Crosby was thrown under the overturned buggy and her right leg was broken just above the knee. The Middlebury barbers who have been in the custom of closing every Thursday afternoon evening for three years have agreed to dispense with that arrangement and the shop will hereafter be open on Thursday afternoon, but not at night.

The Women's Auxiliary of St. John's Episcopal Church will meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock with Mrs. C. H. Chiles. Mrs. John E. Wright has come to Enosburg Falls to attend the State convention of the Women's Auxiliary of the Episcopal Church. Mrs. E. G. Hunt has returned from the Fanny Allen hospital at Winoski, where she has been under treatment for a few weeks. She is somewhat improved. Mr. and Mrs. William Bradley and their two children and Miss Bertha Gilmore have returned from Pittsford after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Munley Winch. Dana Jones has returned from Ira, where he has been attending a family reunion at the home of his parents. Miss Elizabeth Calhoun has entered the dry goods store of John K. Dyer as clerk.

The annual agricultural contest for Addison county, and the towns of Brandon and Sudbury in Rutland county, conducted by the Grange, Young Men's Christian association and schools of Addison county was opened in the Grange hall here yesterday afternoon. The time was taken up with the arranging a number of the many entries. There are contests for boys in corn and potatoes; for men in corn, potatoes, apples, pumpkins and squash; for women in domestic science, including canning and needlework; and for girls, needlework and corn cooking. The entries in all these classes are numerous, especially in the corn, fruit and canning departments. The needlework exhibits by the women and girls are many and beautiful. Prizes are given in each of the classes, contributed by merchants in the various towns and by the State agricultural committee. The sweetestakes prize in the boys corn contest, a two week trip to the Adirondack Park, made available by the State committee of the Young Men's Christian association. The State agricultural experiment station at Burlington has a large exhibit, which is attracting much attention. The men's and boys' contests are open to all. There is no entrance fee in the contests for boys and girls not over 17 years of age and each contestant in the corn and potato contest is expected to submit a story of how their exhibits were grown. It is expected that the Hon. Charles W. Gates of Franklin, governor-elect, will be here this afternoon to deliver an address at three o'clock. Judge and John E. Weeks gave a reception at their home on South Pleasant street Tuesday evening following his second consecutive triumphant election as town representative. The street was lined with people and automobiles and there was plenty of good music by the Middlebury College band and the Vermont Industrial school at Vergennes, which came down by automobile. From the veranda of the house President John M. Thomas of Middlebury College made a brief speech introducing Judge Weeks, who also spoke briefly, being followed by Superintendent J. M. Barnes of the Industrial school, with whom successful management in late years Judge Weeks has had so much to do as chairman of the State board of penal institutions. All were invited into the house and chairs and choice candies were served. Judge and Mrs. Weeks not having had time to provide a more elaborate entertainment, the young folks who had gathered in the hall in front of the residence, Miss Elizabeth Griffith has returned from Brandon, where she has been visiting at the home of her parents. Prof. Avery E. Lambert will deliver an address on "The Birds of New England" before the Housekeepers' club of Proctor Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Burroughs of Ogdensburg, N. Y., are in town. The funeral of Mrs. Joseph Jones of High street was held at St. Mary's Catholic Church yesterday morning at eight o'clock and was largely attended. Father Leonard, pastor of the church, officiated and the burial was in the family lot in St. Catharine's cemetery. The bearers were: Toussaint Kidder, George Kidder, Edward Goodie, John Jero, Frank Trudo and Fred Marselles. William Vanderhoof of Bridport was arrested by County Game Warden G. H. Chaffee charged with shooting duck from a power boat. He was taken to the Vermont State Prison at Montpelier and was fined $10 and costs of $15, which he arranged to pay.

N. Snyder spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Donahue of Charlotte. The condition of Mrs. Reuben Haight, who recently underwent a surgical operation at the Mary Fletcher hospital, Burlington, is improving. The Rev. Thomas Stevenson will deliver a lecture this evening on "Travels and Experiences in West Central Africa." The Rev. John Chapman, a missionary to Alaska, who is in town to visit his family, gave a sketch of his work in that field at a union meeting at the Methodist Church Sunday. Professor Raymond McFarland has returned from Montpelier, where on Saturday night he lectured on the subject of "The Future of the World." His address at a progressive meeting at the Methodist Church Sunday evening was accompanied by Miss Marion Crosby and Miss Beate Bradenburgh of Middlebury, who were enjoying a ride Saturday night when, about two miles east of the village, in making a turn for the return trip the buggy was overturned and all were thrown out. The carriage was badly smashed and the horses ran to Weybridge. Young Warner and Miss Bradenburgh escaped with slight bruises, but Miss Crosby was thrown under the overturned buggy and her right leg was broken just above the knee. The Middlebury barbers who have been in the custom of closing every Thursday afternoon evening for three years have agreed to dispense with that arrangement and the shop will hereafter be open on Thursday afternoon, but not at night.

The Women's Auxiliary of St. John's Episcopal Church will meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock with Mrs. C. H. Chiles. Mrs. John E. Wright has come to Enosburg Falls to attend the State convention of the Women's Auxiliary of the Episcopal Church. Mrs. E. G. Hunt has returned from the Fanny Allen hospital at Winoski, where she has been under treatment for a few weeks. She is somewhat improved. Mr. and Mrs. William Bradley and their two children and Miss Bertha Gilmore have returned from Pittsford after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Munley Winch. Dana Jones has returned from Ira, where he has been attending a family reunion at the home of his parents. Miss Elizabeth Calhoun has entered the dry goods store of John K. Dyer as clerk.

The annual agricultural contest for Addison county, and the towns of Brandon and Sudbury in Rutland county, conducted by the Grange, Young Men's Christian association and schools of Addison county was opened in the Grange hall here yesterday afternoon. The time was taken up with the arranging a number of the many entries. There are contests for boys in corn and potatoes; for men in corn, potatoes, apples, pumpkins and squash; for women in domestic science, including canning and needlework; and for girls, needlework and corn cooking. The entries in all these classes are numerous, especially in the corn, fruit and canning departments. The needlework exhibits by the women and girls are many and beautiful. Prizes are given in each of the classes, contributed by merchants in the various towns and by the State agricultural committee. The sweetestakes prize in the boys corn contest, a two week trip to the Adirondack Park, made available by the State committee of the Young Men's Christian association. The State agricultural experiment station at Burlington has a large exhibit, which is attracting much attention. The men's and boys' contests are open to all. There is no entrance fee in the contests for boys and girls not over 17 years of age and each contestant in the corn and potato contest is expected to submit a story of how their exhibits were grown. It is expected that the Hon. Charles W. Gates of Franklin, governor-elect, will be here this afternoon to deliver an address at three o'clock. Judge and John E. Weeks gave a reception at their home on South Pleasant street Tuesday evening following his second consecutive triumphant election as town representative. The street was lined with people and automobiles and there was plenty of good music by the Middlebury College band and the Vermont Industrial school at Vergennes, which came down by automobile. From the veranda of the house President John M. Thomas of Middlebury College made a brief speech introducing Judge Weeks, who also spoke briefly, being followed by Superintendent J. M. Barnes of the Industrial school, with whom successful management in late years Judge Weeks has had so much to do as chairman of the State board of penal institutions. All were invited into the house and chairs and choice candies were served. Judge and Mrs. Weeks not having had time to provide a more elaborate entertainment, the young folks who had gathered in the hall in front of the residence, Miss Elizabeth Griffith has returned from Brandon, where she has been visiting at the home of her parents. Prof. Avery E. Lambert will deliver an address on "The Birds of New England" before the Housekeepers' club of Proctor Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Burroughs of Ogdensburg, N. Y., are in town. The funeral of Mrs. Joseph Jones of High street was held at St. Mary's Catholic Church yesterday morning at eight o'clock and was largely attended. Father Leonard, pastor of the church, officiated and the burial was in the family lot in St. Catharine's cemetery. The bearers were: Toussaint Kidder, George Kidder, Edward Goodie, John Jero, Frank Trudo and Fred Marselles. William Vanderhoof of Bridport was arrested by County Game Warden G. H. Chaffee charged with shooting duck from a power boat. He was taken to the Vermont State Prison at Montpelier and was fined $10 and costs of $15, which he arranged to pay.

CORNWALL.

Mrs. Ernest Southard is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Mann, from South Dakota. Mrs. E. R. Sears, who has been ill, is improving and is able to be up. The Rev. W. S. Boardman is at home from his vacation. Mr. Boardman will remain in Windsor with his parents for a time. Carrie Wilmanette was at home over Sunday from Shorham. Mrs. Hayward Marshall is in John Monday. He has spent the week in several different points in the West. Donald Doherty, little son of Mr. and Mrs. William Doherty, is ill.

CORNWALL.

Mrs. E. H. Warner fell the other day and fractured both bones of one limb. Charles Bonadett, whose foot was caught under a falling tree and badly injured some time ago, is now recovering. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Warner, who have been in town for some time, are now in town. The Rev. W. S. Boardman is at home from his vacation. Mr. Boardman will remain in Windsor with his parents for a time. Carrie Wilmanette was at home over Sunday from Shorham. Mrs. Hayward Marshall is in John Monday. He has spent the week in several different points in the West. Donald Doherty, little son of Mr. and Mrs. William Doherty, is ill.

CORNWALL.

Mrs. E. H. Warner fell the other day and fractured both bones of one limb. Charles Bonadett, whose foot was caught under a falling tree and badly injured some time ago, is now recovering. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Warner, who have been in town for some time, are now in town. The Rev. W. S. Boardman is at home from his vacation. Mr. Boardman will remain in Windsor with his parents for a time. Carrie Wilmanette was at home over Sunday from Shorham. Mrs. Hayward Marshall is in John Monday. He has spent the week in several different points in the West. Donald Doherty, little son of Mr. and Mrs. William Doherty, is ill.

CORNWALL.

Mrs. E. H. Warner fell the other day and fractured both bones of one limb. Charles Bonadett, whose foot was caught under a falling tree and badly injured some time ago, is now recovering. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Warner, who have been in town for some time, are now in town. The Rev. W. S. Boardman is at home from his vacation. Mr. Boardman will remain in Windsor with his parents for a time. Carrie Wilmanette was at home over Sunday from Shorham. Mrs. Hayward Marshall is in John Monday. He has spent the week in several different points in the West. Donald Doherty, little son of Mr. and Mrs. William Doherty, is ill.

CORNWALL.

Mrs. E. H. Warner fell the other day and fractured both bones of one limb. Charles Bonadett, whose foot was caught under a falling tree and badly injured some time ago, is now recovering. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Warner, who have been in town for some time, are now in town. The Rev. W. S. Boardman is at home from his vacation. Mr. Boardman will remain in Windsor with his parents for a time. Carrie Wilmanette was at home over Sunday from Shorham. Mrs. Hayward Marshall is in John Monday. He has spent the week in several different points in the West. Donald Doherty, little son of Mr. and Mrs. William Doherty, is ill.

CORNWALL.

Mrs. E. H. Warner fell the other day and fractured both bones of one limb. Charles Bonadett, whose foot was caught under a falling tree and badly injured some time ago, is now recovering. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Warner, who have been in town for some time, are now in town. The Rev. W. S. Boardman is at home from his vacation. Mr. Boardman will remain in Windsor with his parents for a time. Carrie Wilmanette was at home over Sunday from Shorham. Mrs. Hayward Marshall is in John Monday. He has spent the week in several different points in the West. Donald Doherty, little son of Mr. and Mrs. William Doherty, is ill.

CORNWALL.

Mrs. E. H. Warner fell the other day and fractured both bones of one limb. Charles Bonadett, whose foot was caught under a falling tree and badly injured some time ago, is now recovering. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Warner, who have been in town for some time, are now in town. The Rev. W. S. Boardman is at home from his vacation. Mr. Boardman will remain in Windsor with his parents for a time. Carrie Wilmanette was at home over Sunday from Shorham. Mrs. Hayward Marshall is in John Monday. He has spent the week in several different points in the West. Donald Doherty, little son of Mr. and Mrs. William Doherty, is ill.

CORNWALL.

Mrs. E. H. Warner fell the other day and fractured both bones of one limb. Charles Bonadett, whose foot was caught under a falling tree and badly injured some time ago, is now recovering. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Warner, who have been in town for some time, are now in town. The Rev. W. S. Boardman is at home from his vacation. Mr. Boardman will remain in Windsor with his parents for a time. Carrie Wilmanette was at home over Sunday from Shorham. Mrs. Hayward Marshall is in John Monday. He has spent the week in several different points in the West. Donald Doherty, little son of Mr. and Mrs. William Doherty, is ill.

CORNWALL.

Mrs. E. H. Warner fell the other day and fractured both bones of one limb. Charles Bonadett, whose foot was caught under a falling tree and badly injured some time ago, is now recovering. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Warner, who have been in town for some time, are now in town. The Rev. W. S. Boardman is at home from his vacation. Mr. Boardman will remain in Windsor with his parents for a time. Carrie Wilmanette was at home over Sunday from Shorham. Mrs. Hayward Marshall is in John Monday. He has spent the week in several different points in the West. Donald Doherty, little son of Mr. and Mrs. William Doherty, is ill.

There was a large display of gifts, consisting of money, sterling silver, china, cutglass and linen. Those from out of town to attend the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Boardman, parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. K. Kirby and Mrs. A. K. Keeler of East Middlebury, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. James, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Kingsland and Mr. Dewey of Weybridge. Mrs. David Bascom of Greenboro, Mrs. E. B. R. Martin, Mrs. Mary Martin, Mildred Gregory and Mrs. Alice Martin of Burlington, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Goe of Montpelier and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Williams of Bennington. The bride couple left by train for Burlington at 10 o'clock. They will reside in East Middlebury, where Mr. Boardman has a farm. Charles Wheeler and aunt, Mrs. Ann Wheeler, after the summer spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kingsland, have returned to their home in Chicago. They were accompanied by Miss Frances Wheeler, who expects to remain through the winter there.

George King, station agent, and Mrs. King have returned home and will live in Jerry Sears' house. Jerry Sears and family have moved in with his mother, Mrs. Sears. Mrs. G. W. Shibley of Los Angeles, Cal., has returned to Burlington after visiting her nephews, Charles and Capt. George Shibley, who are in the United States Army. Mrs. Shibley arrived Sunday at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Amelia Palmer. Mrs. Emma Palmer has returned from Shelburne, where she has been several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Rowley. Saturday evening there was a special meeting of Mr. Philo Grange to make arrangements for a carnival and masquerade ball to be held in Allen hall Friday evening. November 6. There will be a large display of gifts, consisting of money, sterling silver, china, cutglass and linen. Those from out of town to attend the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Boardman, parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. K. Kirby and Mrs. A. K. Keeler of East Middlebury, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. James, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Kingsland and Mr. Dewey of Weybridge. Mrs. David Bascom of Greenboro, Mrs. E. B. R. Martin, Mrs. Mary Martin, Mildred Gregory and Mrs. Alice Martin of Burlington, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Goe of Montpelier and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Williams of Bennington. The bride couple left by train for Burlington at 10 o'clock. They will reside in East Middlebury, where Mr. Boardman has a farm. Charles Wheeler and aunt, Mrs. Ann Wheeler, after the summer spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kingsland, have returned to their home in Chicago. They were accompanied by Miss Frances Wheeler, who expects to remain through the winter there.

George King, station agent, and Mrs. King have returned home and will live in Jerry Sears' house. Jerry Sears and family have moved in with his mother, Mrs. Sears. Mrs. G. W. Shibley of Los Angeles, Cal., has returned to Burlington after visiting her nephews, Charles and Capt. George Shibley, who are in the United States Army. Mrs. Shibley arrived Sunday at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Amelia Palmer. Mrs. Emma Palmer has returned from Shelburne, where she has been several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Rowley. Saturday evening there was a special meeting of Mr. Philo Grange to make arrangements for a carnival and masquerade ball to be held in Allen hall Friday evening. November 6. There will be a large display of gifts, consisting of money, sterling silver, china, cutglass and linen. Those from out of town to attend the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Boardman, parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. K. Kirby and Mrs. A. K. Keeler of East Middlebury, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. James, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Kingsland and Mr. Dewey of Weybridge. Mrs. David Bascom of Greenboro, Mrs. E. B. R. Martin, Mrs. Mary Martin, Mildred Gregory and Mrs. Alice Martin of Burlington, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Goe of Montpelier and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Williams of Bennington. The bride couple left by train for Burlington at 10 o'clock. They will reside in East Middlebury, where Mr. Boardman has a farm. Charles Wheeler and aunt, Mrs. Ann Wheeler, after the summer spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kingsland, have returned to their home in Chicago. They were accompanied by Miss Frances Wheeler, who expects to remain through the winter there.

George King, station agent, and Mrs. King have returned home and will live in Jerry Sears' house. Jerry Sears and family have moved in with his mother, Mrs. Sears. Mrs. G. W. Shibley of Los Angeles, Cal., has returned to Burlington after visiting her nephews, Charles and Capt. George Shibley, who are in the United States Army. Mrs. Shibley arrived Sunday at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Amelia Palmer. Mrs. Emma Palmer has returned from Shelburne, where she has been several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Rowley. Saturday evening there was a special meeting of Mr. Philo Grange to make arrangements for a carnival and masquerade ball to be held in Allen hall Friday evening. November 6. There will be a large display of gifts, consisting of money, sterling silver, china, cutglass and linen. Those from out of town to attend the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Boardman, parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. K. Kirby and Mrs. A. K. Keeler of East Middlebury, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. James, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Kingsland and Mr. Dewey of Weybridge. Mrs. David Bascom of Greenboro, Mrs. E. B. R. Martin, Mrs. Mary Martin, Mildred Gregory and Mrs. Alice Martin of Burlington, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Goe of Montpelier and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Williams of Bennington. The bride couple left by train for Burlington at 10 o'clock. They will reside in East Middlebury, where Mr. Boardman has a farm. Charles Wheeler and aunt, Mrs. Ann Wheeler, after the summer spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kingsland, have returned to their home in Chicago. They were accompanied by Miss Frances Wheeler, who expects to remain through the winter there.

George King, station agent, and Mrs. King have returned home and will live in Jerry Sears' house. Jerry Sears and family have moved in with his mother, Mrs. Sears. Mrs. G. W. Shibley of Los Angeles, Cal., has returned to Burlington after visiting her nephews, Charles and Capt. George Shibley, who are in the United States Army. Mrs. Shibley arrived Sunday at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Amelia Palmer. Mrs. Emma Palmer has returned from Shelburne, where she has been several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Rowley. Saturday evening there was a special meeting of Mr. Philo Grange to make arrangements for a carnival and masquerade ball to be held in Allen hall Friday evening. November 6. There will be a large display of gifts, consisting of money, sterling silver, china, cutglass and linen. Those from out of town to attend the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Boardman, parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. K. Kirby and Mrs. A. K. Keeler of East Middlebury, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. James, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Kingsland and Mr. Dewey of Weybridge. Mrs. David Bascom of Greenboro, Mrs. E. B. R. Martin, Mrs. Mary Martin, Mildred Gregory and Mrs. Alice Martin of Burlington, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Goe of Montpelier and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Williams of Bennington. The bride couple left by train for Burlington at 10 o'clock. They will reside in East Middlebury, where Mr. Boardman has a farm. Charles Wheeler and aunt, Mrs. Ann Wheeler, after the summer spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kingsland, have returned to their home in Chicago. They were accompanied by Miss Frances Wheeler, who expects to remain through the winter there.

George King, station agent, and Mrs. King have returned home and will live in Jerry Sears' house. Jerry Sears and family have moved in with his mother, Mrs. Sears. Mrs. G. W. Shibley of Los Angeles, Cal., has returned to Burlington after visiting her nephews, Charles and Capt. George Shibley, who are in the United States Army. Mrs. Shibley arrived Sunday at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Amelia Palmer. Mrs. Emma Palmer has returned from Shelburne, where she has been several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Rowley. Saturday evening there was a special meeting of Mr. Philo Grange to make arrangements for a carnival and masquerade ball to be held in Allen hall Friday evening. November 6. There will be a large display of gifts, consisting of money, sterling silver, china, cutglass and linen. Those from out of town to attend the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Boardman, parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. K. Kirby and Mrs. A. K. Keeler of East Middlebury, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. James, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Kingsland and Mr. Dewey of Weybridge. Mrs. David Bascom of Greenboro, Mrs. E. B. R. Martin, Mrs. Mary Martin, Mildred Gregory and Mrs. Alice Martin of Burlington, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Goe of Montpelier and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Williams of Bennington. The bride couple left by train for Burlington at 10 o'clock. They will reside in East Middlebury, where Mr. Boardman has a farm. Charles Wheeler and aunt, Mrs. Ann Wheeler, after the summer spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kingsland, have returned to their home in Chicago. They were accompanied by Miss Frances Wheeler, who expects to remain through the winter there.

George King, station agent, and Mrs. King have returned home and will live in Jerry Sears' house. Jerry Sears and family have moved in with his mother, Mrs. Sears. Mrs. G. W. Shibley of Los Angeles, Cal., has returned to Burlington after visiting her nephews, Charles and Capt. George Shibley, who are in the United States Army. Mrs. Shibley arrived Sunday at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Amelia Palmer. Mrs. Emma Palmer has returned from Shelburne, where she has been several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Rowley. Saturday evening there was a special meeting of Mr. Philo Grange to make arrangements for a carnival and masquerade ball to be held in Allen hall Friday evening. November 6. There will be a large display of gifts, consisting of money, sterling silver, china, cutglass and linen. Those from out of town to attend the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Boardman, parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. K. Kirby and Mrs. A. K. Keeler of East Middlebury, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. James, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Kingsland and Mr. Dewey of Weybridge. Mrs. David Bascom of Greenboro, Mrs. E. B. R. Martin, Mrs. Mary Martin, Mildred Gregory and Mrs. Alice Martin of Burlington, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Goe of Montpelier and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Williams of Bennington. The bride couple left by train for Burlington at 10 o'clock. They will reside in East Middlebury, where Mr. Boardman has a farm. Charles Wheeler and aunt, Mrs. Ann Wheeler, after the summer spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kingsland, have returned to their home in Chicago. They were accompanied by Miss Frances Wheeler, who expects to remain through the winter there.

George King, station agent, and Mrs. King have returned home and will live in Jerry Sears' house. Jerry Sears and family have moved in with his mother, Mrs. Sears. Mrs. G. W. Shibley of Los Angeles, Cal., has returned to Burlington after visiting her nephews, Charles and Capt. George Shibley, who are in the United States Army. Mrs. Shibley arrived Sunday at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Amelia Palmer. Mrs. Emma Palmer has returned from Shelburne, where she has been several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Rowley. Saturday evening there was a special meeting of Mr. Philo Grange to make arrangements for a carnival and masquerade ball to be held in Allen hall Friday evening. November 6. There will be a large display of gifts, consisting of money, sterling silver, china, cutglass and linen. Those from out of town to attend the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Boardman, parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. K. Kirby and Mrs. A. K. Keeler of East Middlebury, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. James, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Kingsland and Mr. Dewey of Weybridge. Mrs. David Bascom of Greenboro, Mrs. E. B. R. Martin, Mrs. Mary Martin, Mildred Gregory and Mrs. Alice Martin of Burlington, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Goe of Montpelier and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Williams of Bennington. The bride couple left by train for Burlington at 10 o'clock. They will reside in East Middlebury, where Mr. Boardman has a farm. Charles Wheeler and aunt, Mrs. Ann Wheeler, after the summer spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kingsland, have returned to their home in Chicago. They were accompanied by Miss Frances Wheeler, who expects to remain through the winter there.

George King, station agent, and Mrs. King have returned home and will live in Jerry Sears' house. Jerry Sears and family have moved in with his mother, Mrs. Sears. Mrs. G. W. Shibley of Los Angeles, Cal., has returned to Burlington after visiting her nephews, Charles and Capt. George Shibley, who are in the United States Army. Mrs. Shibley arrived Sunday at the home of her aunt, Mrs